CONFERENCE ON TURK QUESTION HELD BY ALLIES

Evolve Plan for Return of Constantinople to Turkey

(By The Associated Press) PARIS, Sept. 22.—Limited assurances involving the return of Constantinople, Eastern Thrace, and Adrianople to Turkey, were tentatively agreed upon today at a meeting of the conference of allied representatives and will be formally considered by the French and British cabinets tomorrow.

Approval of these conditions of peace would mean a definite end to the Near East crisis. To meet the insistence of the British that no claims of the Ankara government should be accepted in advance of a peace conference and approval by a full peace conference.

Taking the so-called nationalist pact as a basis, the allied representatives discussed for nearly four hours the Turkish demands. Lord Curzon, British foreign secretary, expressed doubt as to whether his government would agree with any conditions of the Nationalists in advance of a peace conference, but he finally consented to forward the plan to London tonight.

M. Poincare favored out and out approval of all Kemalist demands, but it is realized in French government circles that the best that can be hoped for is limited acceptance by Great Britain. The general scheme for peace would contain the following points:

Constantinople, Adrianople, and Eastern Thrace up to the river Maritza would be handed back to Turkey subject to acceptance of a broad demilitarized zone along the Thracian, Bulgarian and Grecian frontiers.

Internationalization of the straits of the Dardanelles under the League of Nations or some other international body.

Maintenance of a permanent allied military force at Gallipoli.

Rigid treaty clauses insuring the protection of the minorities in Turkey.

British to Remain

It is probable the British force at Chanak would remain there until a peace treaty is signed between Turkey and Greece. The British also would further limit the size of the Turkish force in Eastern Thrace, to insure peace to that part of Europe.

Premier Poincare desired to have certain of the concessions finally approved today so that Franklin Boillon, who negotiated the Franco-Turkish agreement might proceed immediately to Smyrna in an endeavor to prevent Mustafa Kemal Pasha committing any overt act which would cause hostilities between the Nationalists and the British.

Boillon is now expected to remain in Paris until tomorrow evening.

If the two cabinets approve of the plan M. Boillon will present it to Mustafa Kemal Pasha and try to obtain a promise from him that the Turkish forces will remain in Asiatic Turkey until a peace conference meets.

It was further decided by the conference today to hold the conference at Venice unless the Turks object. If possible the opening session of the conference would be held October 1 or October 12.

HAWAIIANS OBJECT TO U. S. HULA DANCE

(By The Associated Press) HONOLULU, Sept. 22.—The Hawaiian civic club, composed of leading Hawaiians, today adopted a resolution denouncing "exhibitions given in Hawaii and the mainland under the name of the ancient Hawaiian Hula, in costumes alleged to be typically Hawaiian, as being indecent parodies."

The resolution continues by stating that "neither vulgar and indecent parodies nor costumes are representative of Ancient Hawaii, but unjust aspersions upon the character of Hawaiians of today, especially women, of whom such exhibitions are degrading libels."

HERRIN GRAND JURY WILL NOT MAKE ITS REPORT UNTIL TODAY

Final Indictments Will be Made and the Jury Discharged

(By The Associated Press) MARION, Ill., Sept. 22.—Because it took more than expected in preparing its report the special grand jury investigating the Herrin mine killings, will not make its final report until tomorrow it was announced today.

Thirty additional indictments are expected to be returned tomorrow. The grand jury this afternoon had planned to recess tonight but delay in preparation of the findings of the body caused the recess to be deferred until after the jury delivers its final report in the case, which has been set to begin when the jury convenes in the morning.

Having instructed the prosecuting attorneys in the investigation headed by Attorney General Brundage as to their wishes and desires the jurors began discussion of their report.

The report is expected to be quite lengthy and it is said, will review the circumstances leading up to the riots and the following deaths which occurred when the mine was re-opened with non-union labor during the nation-wide coal miners.

Expect Discussion

John Stewart foreman of the jury intimated to the Associated Press tonight that the jurors' final report was not expected to be adopted without lengthy discussion. It is understood that certain members of the jury are in favor of drastic censure for certain state and county officials for alleged failure to call troops or perform their full duty in connection with the mine killings. Other members of the body are reported not to desire the censure of the officials.

The grand jury spent most of today investigating the circumstances leading up to the deaths of the three union miners. In its attempt to place responsibility for the deaths the jury made little if any progress being unable to obtain any information. Among the witnesses appearing to be questioned were A. A. Pace, mayor of Herrin who could give the jury no testimony as he said he was out of town at time of the disorder. Fox Hughes vice-president of the local miners sub-district was summoned but he refused to testify and attempts to gain information from other sources were reported to be of little value.

A conference of the circuit judges of the local judicial district was held to outline the court procedure in the case. The state is anxious to begin the trials of the 58 men already indicted as soon as possible and hopes to start the first case early in October. No decision was reached.

FIND DINOSAURS REMAINS IN CANADA

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—Fossil remains of several dinosaurs have been found in Alberta, Canada, and are to be turned over to the Field Museum of Natural History, Professor E. S. Riggs, associate curator of geology, who returned today from Alberta announced.

Six paleontologists explored in the canyon of the Red Deer River about 125 miles west of Calgary. An almost complete skeleton of a duck billed dinosaur which had been exposed while a creek was cutting its way thru sand and clay in the bad lands of the Sand Hill creek district was dug out and a second specimen was found nearby. Other finds included the shattered bones of a crested dinosaur and a flesh eating reptile about as large as a crocodile.

"These animals lived before the mountains were formed," Professor Riggs said. "It was a time when there was a tropical climate in Alberta, when there was heavy vegetation and redwood trees. We found a petrified trunk of one of these trees."

Arm of the sea extended from the Gulf of Mexico north and connected with the Arctic Ocean, covering much of what is called the great plains region."

Getting out the dinosaur bones, many of which weighed 2,500 pounds or more, was a difficult task, Professor Riggs said.

HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS OUT ON STRIKE

(By The Associated Press) MINEOLA, Sept. 22.—The nineteen members of the senior class of the Mineola high school went on a sympathetic strike today in support of Norman Smith, president, who was sent home yesterday after a disagreement with Mrs. Warren C. Clendy, Latin and French teacher, and J. L. Alart, principal. The trouble started when Mrs. Clendy reproved Smith for not spending enough time at his studies.

GREAT BRITAIN IS STILL DETERMINED TO HOLD THRACE

Allies Making Strenuous Effort to Prevent Hostilities

(By The Associated Press) LONDON, Sept. 22.—The question of peace or war in the Near East seems to turn tonight first upon who her the question of the future status of Thrace can be kept separate and distinct from the question of the neutrality and freedom of the Dardanelles and, second, whether the guns begin to speak before the negotiations between the allied representatives in Paris have ended.

While there is not the slightest diminution in the announced determination of the British government to uphold the neutrality of the Straits of the Dardanelles a significant semi-official statement it seems to indicate some modification of the British policy and its attitude towards Greece in Thrace which it may be assumed is the outcome of the Paris negotiations.

This statement stated Great Britain was not asking for anything herself but that she would insist on neutralization of the Dardanelles and free passage of the waterway under the league of nations or some other international organization. All other questions were secondary.

The Paris negotiations have not been completed according to advances tonight. Premier Poincare is hopeful that by tomorrow a formula will be found acceptable to all parties and which will enable the allies to send a collective note to the Turks suggesting a conference to arrange a peace between the Turks and the Greeks.

One of the strongest charges made against Premier Lloyd George's Near Eastern policy especially by the Labor party has been its pro-Greek character. The Labor Party announced that it was unwilling to engage the nation in a war for the fulfillment of Greek ambition.

Demands Evacuation

According to Constantinople advances, Mustafa Kemal Pasha, the Turkish Nationalist leader demands within 48 hours guarantees for the evacuation of Thrace by the Greeks. Greece expressed the strongest determination to hold Thrace at all costs. France is supposed to be willing to see the Turks back in Eastern Thrace and if an agreement between the British and French governments on this matter is reached it is believed Greece will not likely oppose the views of a united entente.

The foreign office has no confirmation of the report that Kemal has fixed a time limit of 48 hours for the carrying out of the required guarantees or of any advance movement by the Kemalist troops.

According to the view expressed in official quarters the issue lies between Kemal's hands. There is no secret about the strength of the force that the Nationalist leader is able to put in the field. No weight is attached to alarmists and exaggerated estimates of that strength.

INVESTIGATE ALLEGED SLAYING OF NITTI

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—Deputy Sheriff investigating the alleged slaying of John Nitti, Stickney, Ill., farmer, in connection with whose mysterious disappearance Mrs. Nitti, the wife, and Peter Cudella, hired man, are being held, attached importance to the findings today of a dozen coat and vest buttons and the charred remains of clothing on the Nitti farm.

The officers said they believed that Nitti was slain, his clothing burned and the body thrown in the Desplaines river. Dragging of the river continued in a fruitless search for the body.

Counsel for Mrs. Nitti and Cudella failed to secure a writ of Habeas corpus for the release of the missing man who, according to officers, has stated that he saw Cudella kill his father with a siege.

THIEVES CUT WIRES THEN BLOW SAFE

(By The Associated Press) MACOMB, Ill., Sept. 22.—Going at the job in a leisurely fashion after having cut half the telephone lines out of the town four safe blowers this morning blew open the safe of the First National Bank of Blandinsville, 18 miles from here, and escaped in an automobile with approximately $2,500 in cash and an unknown amount of registered liberty bonds. The men were in the bank probably 45 minutes while citizens residing near the bank watched them at their work or listened to their curses when two charges of explosives failed to crack the safe. The third charge blew the door from the hinges.

Calls on Railroads for Strenuous Effort

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—The entire operating personnel of the railways of the country was called upon today by President Harding for a concentrated drive for thirty days to provide the transportation facilities necessary to meet the national coal emergency.

In a letter to Conrad E. Spens, vice president of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad who was named today as federal fuel distributor under the new coal distribution and anti-profiteering act, the president declared that if the enthusiastic attention of the railroads could be stimulated for a month on the movement of coal and handling of empties "we could solve the coal situation not only as to ample supply but prices would be quickly re-adjusted."

The president suggested that Mr. Spens take up with the governors the question of the prevention of extortion as the new act is limited to coal moving in interstate commerce only.

"The federal government," Mr. Harding said, "is loath to undertake to fix definite prices for coal, because of the objectionable character of such intervention in peace times because of the difficulty in arriving at fair prices without giving undue favor to some and loss to others and also because of the incompleteness of an authority which is only supplementary to state action. On the other hand I wish you to set up such agencies as will vigorously follow up individuals using facilities of interstate commerce, who are exacting extortion as defined in the act in order that we may have relief from such practices at the earliest moment."

Arrangements for the distribution and control of anthracite prices the president declared have been satisfactorily established in co-operation with state authorities and operators and he added the first activities of the new fuel agency should be directed to the extension of the co-operative arrangements with the railways, bituminous coal producing and consuming communities and the state authorities set up by Henry B. Spencer, the federal fuel distributor.

No Definite Plans as Yet

Mr. Spens said tonight he was as yet unprepared to announce definite plans for the administration of his new office but he invited the co-operation of the public to the solution of the coal situation.

Co-operation of the consumer, he asserted, was as important as that of the carrier and added his appeal to the plea sent out by the chamber of commerce of the United States that purchases of coal under present conditions be confined to current needs and that there be no accumulation of stocks of coal moving under contract or otherwise. Mr. Spens was announced by Mr. Harding has accepted the office of federal fuel distributor for only sixty days after which he is to return to his railroad duties.

Selection of the federal coal commission authorized by the fact finding bill just enacted probably will not be made for ten days, it was stated officially today at the white house.

The president it was said, is willing to permit officers and miners in both the bituminous and anthracite fields if they desire, to submit a panel of persons who they believed should be appointed. Mr. Harding is understood to be inclined to make some of his selections from such states.

CHILDREN HURT WHEN CONCRETE FLOOR GIVES AWAY

Fifty Are Hurled Into Basement and Many Are Injured

(By The Associated Press) PITTSBURGH, Sept. 22.—Fifty school children, most of them less than 12 years old, were massed today in the lobby of the Strand, a new motion picture theater to-day, awaiting admission to a free show, when the concrete floor cracked from end to end and dropped the little ones into the basement. The body of eight year old Madeline Kunkle, dressed in holiday garb, was removed from the debris. The injured, 38 children, and Sol Selznick, theater proprietor were placed on cots in a nearby hospital.

Selznick and four of the children were in a serious condition tonight. A dozen boys and girls were unconscious when they were dug from the powdered mass of stone and cement. Some were bleeding profusely. Others vaguely realizing what had happened whimpered and cried for their parents.

Physicians at the Pittsburgh hospital gave first aid to the injured before the institution was reached by a score of hysterical mothers. Victims who escaped grave injuries were permitted to go home.

TWO BURLINGTON TRAINS ROBBED BY BANDITS FRIDAY

Congress Park Station Also Yields $3,000 in Cash

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—Two fast trains on the Burlington railroad were robbed of merchandise valued at several hundred dollars while traveling between Chicago and Aurora today and the railroad station at Congress Park a suburban station west of here was entered and about $3,000 taken from the safe.

Guards were placed on some trains tonight and the authorities of Cook and DuPage counties searching the district west of Chicago for a trace of the train robbers.

Bandits boarded the first freight at Naperville, Ill., and threw valuable freight from six cars along the right of way as the train sped along. Confederates riding in automobiles made away with the goods. The marauders left the train at Eola, a suburban stop where automobiles appeared to pick them up. The same tactics were used in looting the second train.

TWO HURT WHEN CAR HITS WAGON

Chicago, Sept. 22.—Two persons were seriously injured and a dozen others cut or bruised by flying glass when a street car was side swiped by an express wagon today. Iron pipes protruding from the rear of the wagon smashed nearly all the windows on one side of the street car.

CONGRESS FINISHES WORK, ADJOURNS FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Leaders Expecting a Special Call About November 15

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Congress adjourned sine die today with leaders generally expecting a call from President Harding for a special session November 15, preceding the regular December session. The president was in attendance today for a few minutes before the final gavel dropped to sign the usual eleven-hour bill.

The only important measure to get thru on the last day was the deficiency appropriation bill, the administration Liochia loan bill and the Dyer anti-lynching measure going over until the next session.

After disposing of the deficiency appropriation bill, the senate passed a number of minor measures and listened to a few speeches.

Speaker Gillett, after a brief speech bailed the house adjournment gavel promptly at 2 o'clock. The senate adjourned two or three minutes later having to stop the clock briefly while necessary bills were signed for submission to President Harding.

A few political speeches marked the closing hours of the session—the second of the 67th congress. Republican Leader Montell in the house and Senator Smoot, Republican Utah, in the senate praised the dominant party's record which was attacked in brief speeches by Senators Harrison of Mississippi and McKellar, Tenn., Democrats.

Leaders and "rank and file" now go to the country on the record entering the fall campaign.

300 Laws Enacted

About 300 laws were said to have been enacted in the present session of congress.

Appropriations of the session aggregated over $2,250,000,000 and with authorizations, $3,751,917,000 was made available for the government's fiscal year needs. About 9,000 nominations were sent to the senate by President Harding which were confirmed with few exceptions.

The administration merchant marine bill which was reported to the house amendment of the transportation act, coal legislation and appropriations measures proposed to be principal business for the coming session which will end March 4. Members from Agricultural districts are also planning to press rural credit reform. Administration leaders said that if the president should adhere to his present inclination to call a special session about November 15, it would not be primarily for disposal of the merchant marine legislation but to consider other important measures to expedite appropriations bills during the short session. Several investigations are to be continued when congress reassembles. These include the house judiciary committee's discussion of the impeachment charges of Representative Keller, Republican, Minn., against Attorney General Daugherty and senate inquiries into the oil and gasoline industry.

SENTIMENT CHANGES ON MERCHANT MARINE

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—President Harding is convinced that there has been a marked change in sentiment regarding government aid to the American Merchant marine in sections of the country where hostility to such a program formerly was in evidence, an administration spokesman declared today.

Communications received at the white house indicate it was said that the proposal now pending in congress which may be the principal subject of discussion at a November session would be "cordially accepted" by sections hitherto strongly opposed to subsidy legislation.

The change in sentiment was ascribed to a new realization that the United States to maintain its proper place among commercial nations of the world must have an adequate merchant fleet. Charges of a shipping board propagand in favor of the administration ship subsidy bill were denied flatly in a letter written by Chairman Lasker and put in the senate record today by Chairman Jones of the commerce committee.

BELIEVE JEALOUS WOMAN GUILTY OF DOUBLE SLAYING

This is Conclusion Reached By Officers Working on Case

(By The Associated Press) NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Sept. 22.—"A jealous woman killed my mom and Mr. Hall," This assertion fitting in perfectly with the theory which authorities investigating the murder of Mrs. Eleanor Mills and the Rev. E. W. Hall are bending every effort to prove, was made this evening by Charlotte Mills, 16 year old daughter of the dead woman.

"The woman I think killed mom," the girl continued, with bitterness, "was . . . she named a woman whom the authorities also have admitted was the center of most of their suspicions."

"This woman isn't an ordinary woman," she went on. "She has funny eyes that make you afraid of her. . . sort of like a man. She hates young people. She is three times as strong as mom."

Charlotte is not unaware of the stories on which the supposed jealousy of her mother is believed to be founded. She has heard the gossip linking her mother's name in an unsavory way with that of the slain minister. But she believes in "mom."

"Mom did a lot of work that a pastor's wife should have done in Mr. Hall's church," she said. "Maybe some people connected with the church were jealous because of that. Mom was romantic—but her character was beyond reproach."

"A jealous woman—helped by some man—killed her."

The jealousy theory was strongly supported by several developments today. Assistant Prosecutor Toolan, who has been directing the Middlesex county investigation declared there was no doubt left in the minds of the investigators that jealousy was the motive.

One of the strongest leads followed today was that of a reported attempt to poison Mrs. Mills at a tea party several weeks before she and the minister were slain. When Mrs. James Tenneson, another sister of the dead woman confirmed this report with the statement that Mrs. Mills had told of being made ill by a sip of coffee, and had declared that but for the confidence she had in the friendship of the hostess she would believe she had been poisoned additional detectives were assigned to develop this angle of the case. The hostess at that party is the woman about whom most of the suspicion centers.

NO DEVELOPMENTS IN BOARD SITUATION

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—While it was said at the white house today that there had been "no developments in the federal reserve board situation" and that President Harding had made no pledge to nominate or re-nominate any one as governor of the board, some administration leaders in congress who discussed the case with the chief executive said their understanding was that he was not disposed to re-nominate W. P. G. Harding to the position.

Governor Harding's term expired last month and his reappointment had been urged by many bankers and members of congress and opposed by others. The question was understood to have been taken up with the president anew on circulation of reports that after adjournment of congress today the executive intended to give Mr. Harding a recess appointment.

PENNSYLVANIA BREAKS RECORDS

Chicago, Sept. 22.—Records in car loadings of coal on the Pennsylvania railroad have been broken since settlement of the coal strike according to a statement issued by the road tonight. From September 1 to 19 exclusive of Labor Day the statement said, an average of 5,446 cars of bituminous coal were loaded daily, this representing a daily average 40 per cent higher than for the same period last year and 15 per cent above the average for the first three months of this year.

SUITS STARTED TO PREVENT TRIAL BY JURY IS ALLEGED

Attorneys for Former Treasurers Present Argument

(By The Associated Press) CARROLLTON, Ill., Sept. 22.—Suits against Governor Len Small and others for an accounting for interest money on state funds is an effort to keep up the agitation thruout the state which was started at Waukegan and is an attempt to deprive the governor of a trial by jury, attorneys for the defense charged in arguments on demurrers made in the Greene county circuit court here today, before Judge Norman L. Jones.

With this charge against the prosecution, lawyers for the defense ended their arguments this afternoon. Tomorrow morning represented by Clarence N. Boord and Ashton Campbell, assistant attorneys general will open arguments for the prosecution and will complete their side before noon they indicated. The defense rebuttal will be brief. Judge Jones will then take the case under advisement he told The Associated Press this afternoon and will render a decision in a few weeks.

Frank Quinn of Peoria, of the defense counsel, made the charge that an effort is being fostered to prevent the governor's case from reaching trial by jury.

Mr. Quinn, who is attorney for Lieutenant Governor Sterling, a defendant with Governor Small declared "Sterling doesn't owe the state a single dollar."

The legal battery assembled for the defense opened its attack on the civil suits this morning thru former United States Senator L. Y. Sherman, who laid the ground work of the argument by which it is sought to have the case amended or thrown out on technical grounds. Sherman contended that the law of 1908, under which the treasurer is directed to place funds in banks at interest is unconstitutional because it violates the inherent duty and privilege of the treasurer to "receive and safely keep," such funds.

The former senator showed an unusual memory in arguing for two hours, citing authorities since the time of King Alfred the Great and William the Conqueror and giving volumes, pages and dates and quoting legal works without a single written memorandum before him.

W. W. Schroeder of Kankakee, N. C. Balmum, Springfield, former Judge Owen P. Thompson and John J. Reeve of Jacksonville and Frank Quinn of Peoria followed the senator in turn.

A long and intricate legal fight must ensue before the case can come to trial, attorneys indicated. Judge Jones announced he would ask the attorneys to submit a combined brief, containing the principal arguments. They will be given several weeks to prepare them, he said. If he rules against the defense, the defendants may either appeal or answer the bill on its merits. If he holds for them the state must either amend the bill or appeal to the supreme court.

SIGNS FOR COAL FOR FORD PLANTS

(By The Associated Press) CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 22.—Abner Lunsford, in charge of the Banner Fork Mining interests and acting as agent for Henry Ford, automobile manufacturer, signed today an agreement for the delivery of a large tonnage of coal to be delivered to the Ford plants of Detroit. The signing took place at the American Export and Inland Coal corporation office.

Mr. Lunsford, who acted as coal purchasing agent here at the Ford interests declined to say at what price and in what volume he had bought coal for the company.

"You can say that it was at the Hoover fair price and that we now have ordered enough coal to run the plants for thirty days," said Mr. Lunsford. "We are buying coal as fast as we can get it at the price we offer. By the end of 30 days we hope to have enough to run us indefinitely."

Today's Word

Today's word is—Minatory.
It's pronounced—min-a-to-ri, with accent on the first syllable. It means—threatening, menacing. It comes from—Latin "minari," to threaten.
It's use like this—"The tone of Russia's demand that Constantinople be turned over to Mustapha Kemal Pasha is distinctly minatory."

Ald Lyle of Chicago recently charged the coal operators and retail dealers in Chicago with entering into agreement to hold up prices in Chicago. Now two suits in each of which $100,000 damages are asked have been filed against the alderman. Sometimes to be the defendant in a damage suit is a mark of honor.

It is proposed to have a committee representing a wide range of interests to study the problem of traffic. This is a wise plan because any ordinance relating to traffic or any rules governing it can only become really effective when backed by public sentiment.

THE LOCAL SCHOOLS

The figures quoted in another column from Superintendent Perrin relating to the schools of Jacksonville will be a surprise to most readers. There are probably very few people who have realized that the attendance of the schools of Jacksonville has increased 33 1-3 per cent in a year's time and in that same period 100 per cent in the high school.

The statistics are of interest as indicating both an increase in the population of Jacksonville and of greater interest in public education. It is a matter for congratulation.

lation that the schools of Jacksonville have been on the up grade during the superintendency of Mr. Perrin, and have a proper place in the school systems of the state than was once the case. Mr. Perrin is thoroughly interested in educational work and his own enthusiasm may be somewhat judged from the fact that he spends the greater part of each summer in studying methods and in research work at Chicago university.

President Harding has named Vice President Spens of the Chicago Burlington & Quincy railroad as federal fuel administrator. Mr. Spens takes the position for sixty days only, as he must then return to his railroad duties.

If Mr. Spens shows as much good judgment in his federal position as is evidenced in the management of the C. B. & Q. railroad the fuel problem will be solved. The appointment is fortunate because the solution of fuel difficulties is to be largely found in transportation.

"TH' OLE BUSS"

(NEA)

The present boom in the auto industry means employment for 2,250,000 people, says Alfred Reeves, general manager of National Automobile Chamber of Commerce.

His estimate includes—in addition to the 200,000 men working in auto factories—hundreds of thousands of professional chauffeurs and drivers and garage employees, 250,000 accessory factory workers, 150,000 tire dealers and salesmen and thousands more in allied retail trades.

Workers in many other industries also get jobs by the boom. For instance, the making of passenger autos and motor trucks uses up 22 per cent of the country's production of aluminum, about the same in tin, 30 per cent of plate glass, 16 per cent of copper, much coal, iron, steel, varnish, oil and other products.

Then railroad men get work, hauling the cars to buyers.

This chain system, by which the auto industry is keeping 2,250,000 people busy, is rather amazing when you consider that the total number "gainfully employed" in the United States is less than 42,000,000.

It means that one person in each 19 is dependent for work on the sale and use of autos.

How much is luxury, how much necessity, how much a saver of labor and time and money?

Reeves figures that 2,000,000 passenger autos and trucks will be manufactured this year, and that 70 per cent of them will sell for $1000 or less.

In the whole country there are about 10,500,000 autos and trucks. Including accessories and spare tires and garages and so on, at least 10,000,000,000 is tied up in autos.

BERTON BRALEY'S DAILY POEM

The Alcohol Twins—Ethyl and Methyl

BY BERTON BRALEY

ETHYL is a charmer who makes your blood run warmer. She's quite intoxicating in her spiritual way. Too much of her society means constant inebriety. At times she makes you happy—but you pay for it next day. Ethyl is perfidious, although her work's insidious. She doesn't wreck you quickly, but she gets you just the same. She vamps you very slowly, but in time she owns you wholly. And she leads you down to poverty and beastliness and shame.

METHYL is a villain who's out to "make a killin'." He's nothing less than poison of the very rankest kind. You cannot toy with Methyl, for his slightest little breath'll upset your inner working's and quite often make you blind. Besides it's true that Methyl so much resembles Ethyl. That only to a pharmacist is any difference known. And either one may frolic in a potion alcoholic. So—anyone who's sapient will leave them both alone!

L. C. FRESHMEN GIRLS GIVEN RULES OF CONDUCT

Freshmen boys of Illinois College are not the only ones that have rules of conduct laid down for them. Notices were posted yesterday warning the girls of the class that the "Court of Corrections for Plappers" would give them attention unless suggested rules were followed. West of Academy hall freshmen girls must wear bouffant caps, trimmed with green ribbon, tied in a bow at the left side of the chin. Green stockings must also be a part of their daily costume, and further the girls are expected to confine their friendships to other girls.

DR. MILLER RETURNS FROM MASONIC MEET

Veteran Woodson Mason Now Wears Insignia of 33rd Degree Mason.

Dr. George W. Miller of Woodson, who has just been elevated to the rank of 33rd degree in Masonry, returned to Jacksonville yesterday from Cleveland, where he went to attend sessions of the supreme council of Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite Masons.

The highly honorary 33d degree was conferred upon 142 men, gathered from all parts of the U. S. Among the candidates who took the work out of this class was Gov. Showalter of Michigan. President Harding had been voted the honor but pressure of affairs in Washington made it impossible for him to be present.

Dr. Miller was with pride showing his friends the Masonic ring given him at Cleveland as an indication of his new rank, together with a very handsome emblem presented by Springfield consistory. This emblem has appropriately inscribed upon the back a legend indicating when and where Dr. Miller was elevated to the 33rd degree.

The following paragraphs from the Cleveland News with reference to the gathering will be read with interest. "The entertainment program of the conclave was brought to an end Wednesday night with the annual banquet at The Hollenden attended by more than 2,000 thirty-third degree Masons and their women guests. Virtually all of the second floor was occupied by the diners. Voices of the speakers were conveyed to the most distant corners by amplifiers. Plans of Masons of the southern jurisdiction for the establishment of a national university at Washington and compulsory education thru the eighth grade were outlined at the banquet by John R. Cowles, sovereign grand commander of the supreme council for the southern body.

"Declaring the basic cause of modern selfishness was 'the crime of selfishness,' the speaker said, 'the cure for this selfishness, our jurisdiction believes, is in education and to teach all citizens of the land that it is their duty to promote education and to inspire them with their duty to God, country and neighbor.'

"Speakers at the banquet included Sir John Gibson, of Hamilton, Ont., past sovereign grand commander of Canada; Thomas R. Marshall, former vice president of the United States; Alex J. Cameron, sovereign grand commander of the supreme council of Canada; Leon M. Abbott, sovereign grand commander for the northern jurisdiction, and Charles H. Elchhorn, commander-in-chief of Lake Erie consistory. Frank S. Harmon, deputy for Ohio, was toastmaster."

EDWARD A. JENKINSON PASSED AWAY SUDDENLY

Well Known Citizen Expires of Heart Disease at 9 o'clock Friday Night—Coroner Rose Held Inquest.

Heart disease caused the death of Edward A. Jenkinson, well known resident of the city, who expired suddenly at his home, 616 West College avenue about 9 o'clock Friday night, according to the verdict of the jury summoned by Coroner Rose to inquire into the cause.

The jury was impaneled immediately after the death of Mr. Jenkinson and met at the Gillham Funeral Home where the body had been taken to prepare it for burial. The jury was composed of the following: T. H. Sanders, foreman; Tom H. Buckthorpe, clerk; H. F. Franz, L. W. Fernandes, H. T. Downs and Joe Fernandes.

Dr. Bowe, who was called when Mr. Jenkinson was stricken, told the jury that Mr. Jenkinson expired before he reached him. Dr. Bowe, who was familiar with Mr. Jenkinson's condition, stated he believed that death resulted from angina pectoris.

H. J. Floreth, who lives near the Jenkinson home, testified he was called and found Mr. Jenkinson sitting in a Morris chair with his feet on another chair and a book in his lap. Witness said he placed his hand on Mr. Jenkinson's head and also felt for his pulse, but could find none. He said Mr. Jenkinson gasped twice and that was the last sign of life he saw. Edward A. Jenkinson was born in England, but had been for many years a resident of Jacksonville. He was a clothing salesman by occupation and had been in the employ of various clothing merchants of Jacksonville for a long period. For a number of years past he has been in the employ of Tom Duffner.

Mr. Jenkinson was a man of genial spirit and had the faculty of making friends. He was widely known in the city and county and held the respect of the entire community.

He is survived by his widow, one son, Thomas Jenkinson, who lives in Oklahoma, and one daughter, Miss Jean Jenkinson of this city. He also leaves a brother, W. A. Jenkinson, of this city, who arrived in New York last night from an extended visit with relatives in England.

No funeral arrangements have yet been made.

ORCHESTRAL SCHOOL

AT COLLEGE OF MUSIC
An orchestral school to be directed by Mr. John Kearns will be an innovation as a part of the work of Illinois College of Music this year. A symphony orchestra is to be organized among amateur musicians with the thought that practice for such an organization is very beneficial.

Mr. Kearns has been interested in this work for a period of years and is very competent to handle it. Director Pearson feels fortunate in being able to offer this new service.

300 East State

TO TRAIN JUNIOR ORCHESTRA THIS YEAR AT I. W. C.

Amateur Musicians of City to be Enrolled in Symphony Orchestra, Under Direction of J. Kearns —Is New Department of College of Music.

An entirely new department, activity, in the way of ensemble training, is one of the projects of the College of Music, Illinois Woman's College, announced for the coming season.

The Orchestral Training School,
as it is to be called, will consist of a symphony orchestra recruited from the amateur musicians of Jacksonville who wish experience in this line of effort. Grand and small orchestra work is an important goal for beginning musicians who may be a little dubious as to their natural qualifications for concert solo work.
And the practice to be had in such an organization is beneficial and necessary in all sorts of ensemble playing.

The advantage of the symphony orchestra is that it affords use for all the instruments and an almost unlimited number of performers.
Practically the only check is the balance that must be maintained between the various instruments that go to make up the complete organization.

At present there is but limited opportunity and means in Jacksonville for the beginning musician to obtain the advantages of preliminary orchestra training. The various Sunday school and day-school orchestras can not afford the proper advantages, and it often happens that the amateur gets as much harm as good out of belonging to them. This may be the cause for any one or more or several reasons, namely, that they do not have suitable music, or that the amateurs have to play beside advanced performers. And often such orchestras are in charge of incompetent directors, or directors who have not the time to spare or the interests of the amateur at heart.

It is with these things in view, that the College of Music is offering something that has never been offered before, and making a special feature of it, rather than as collateral work in the general music courses.
A member need not be enrolled in any of the college courses in order to belong to this class, but it will be open to all outsiders as well as to students of the College, on any legiti-mate orchestral instrument—Violins, cornets, saxophones, drums, and all the rest. Some arrangements will also be made for providing instruments not generally so popular with beginning musicians, either by rent or by purchase, and special attention will be afforded the performers assigned to those instruments.

Details will be announced later, but it is understood that the preliminary registration and perhaps two or three rehearsals will be free, in order that a balanced selection may be easily made out of the applicants.
The orchestra will be expected to give concerts shortly, and put itself in shape for appearance at other places than Music Hall, where the first rehearsals will probably be conducted.

The Orchestral Training School will be in charge of and directed by Mr. John Kearns, who is already a member of the faculty, and well known to have had general success in the line of training amateur orchestras. Mr. Kearns has made this work a sort of hobby in past years, and now he will be offered the opportunity to apply his knowledge and experience to the best advantage.
Musicians interested in the project are invited to speak to Director Pearson or Mr. Kearns at any time.

Victorious Turkish Cavalry in Rapid Advance

This is the first picture in America to give an accurate idea of Mustapha Kemal Pasha's cavalry, the ring of his army that has been most used in his rapid advance to within a few miles of Constantinople. Notice that some of the horsemen are equipped as regular troopers while others have the nondescript accoutrements of irregulars, brigands and marauders who attached themselves to the Turkish chief as he crossed Asia Minor.

A FRIEND IN NEED A FRIEND INDEED
Writes Mrs. Hardee Regarding Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound
Los Angeles, Calif.—"I must tell you that I am a true friend to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have taken it off and on for twenty years and it has helped me change from a delicate girl to a stout, healthy woman. When I was married I was sick all the time until I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was in bed much of my time with pains and had to have the doctor ever a month. One day I found a little book in my yard in Guthrie, Oklahoma, and I read it through and got the medicine—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—and took eight bottles and used the Sanative Wash. I once began to get stronger. I have got many women to take it just by telling them what it has done for me. I have a young sister whom it has helped in the same way it helped me. I want you to know that I am a friend indeed, for you were a friend indeed." —Mrs. GEORGE HARDEE, 648 E. 11th St., Los Angeles, California.

Code of Business Ethics Is Promulgated by Clothiers
A code of ethics to govern not only the retail business, but also the relations between retailers and consumers, was unanimously adopted at the executive session of the National Association of Retail Clothiers in convention in Madison Square Garden Wednesday afternoon. Fred Voland, vice president of the association, headed the committee that drew up the code, which follows in full:
"We admit that the cornerstone of commerce is integrity; that the assets of any commercial institution consist of honesty and business character first—and after that, service and merchandise.
"We hold paramount the truth that advertising's a covenant with the public; that the spoken or printed word is as binding on performance as an oath in a judicial tribunal, as sacred as the personal pledge.
"It is our constant aim to so administer the affairs of this institution that individual service to the consumer is not diminished or minimized by reason of volume of trade; that interested, personal service, based on the needs and requirements of the individual, is our first duty and chiefest task.
"Mutual exchange of confidence between buyer and seller is essential. We affirm that the history of any article of merchandise concealed beneath trade expressions or symbols (the feigning of which leads the buyer to form an opinion more favorable than would obtain without such disguise) is unfair to the buyer, and therefore contrary to our ethics."

The above Code of Ethics has been the policy of our store for more than fifty years.

Discounting the Count

A count used to be a man in charge of a count of 500 persons to whom he was a sort of overlord. This is not true today because of altered political conditions. We still have Counts, but the Count business has changed somewhat.

Business, of all kinds, has undergone something of a revolution. It was not so many years ago that pack peddlers were the sole distributors and transporters of many of the household articles of the day. Their legs set the limits for most distribution problems in those days.

Modern transportation, progressive sales methods—and advertising—have broken the shackles of time. They make a speedy job of what used to take years. Through advertising many an article has been introduced simultaneously in stores all over the country.

Advertising today is the method used by business to tell you why you should have certain goods and how to identify those goods. The advertisements you find here are a truthful catalog of needed merchandise.

Articles of all kinds and for all purposes are presented in a pleasant way through the medium of type and picture. The outstanding requirements of every member of the family are met by offers of good merchandise of proved value.

Use the advertisements for guidance and

GIANTS BEAT PIRATES 8 TO

New York, Sept. 22.—The New York Nationals again increased their lead to four and a half games, defeating Pittsburgh in the last game of the series 8 to 4. Manager McGraw used 29 players, six of them pitchers. The Giants won the game off Adams in the ninth inning when with one out Frisch was hit by a pitched ball and Meusel walked. Both advanced on a wild pitch and Frisch scored on Young's infield hit.

Kelly followed with another single to right scoring Meusel.

Pittsburgh got off to a good lead when the Pirates scored five runs on J. Barnes and Hill in the fourth inning on five hits a base on balls and two errors, but New York kept plugging away and knocked out Morrison in the fifth inning, scoring three runs.

fanned Ruth once. Ruth made

BROWNS TAKE ONE FROM ATHLETICS

Are Aided by Poor Pitching and Errors—Does Not Help, However, as Yanks Beat Cleveland.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 22.—Aided by errors and poor pitching St. Louis today defeated Philadelphia 11 to 5, but advanced no closer to the pennant as New York defeated Cleveland. As a result the mathematical possibility of the locals taking the bunting virtually ceased to be even a "possibility" as the Browns remain three and a half games behind the Yankees.

George Sisler was back in the lineup after his absence caused by an injured right shoulder.

In the second inning Hauser and Miller clouted successive home runs, Hauser's dropping in to the right field stands and Miller's into the left field seats. No one was on base.

WHEAT MADE LIVELY ADVANCE IN PRICE

By Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—Wheat made a lively advance in price today, stimulated by reports that the Turks had seized positions barring the British fleet from entering the Dardanelles. Profit-taking led to a reaction in values later the market closing unsettled at 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 net gain with December $1.08 to $1.08 1/2 and May $1.12 1/2 to $1.12 3/4. Corn finished 1/2 off to 1 1/2 up and oats up 1/2 to 1 1/2. In provisions the result for the day was a rise varying from 2 1/2 to 15c.

Rushes to buy carried the wheat market sharply upgrade at the opening and brought about fourteen gains during the next two hours, but in subsequent trading heavy sales on the part of holders proved to be more than buyers were prepared for except at some concession from the extreme top figures, the highest since early in August. Nevertheless, bullish sentiment remained strong among the majority of dealers action of the Liverpool and Winnipeg markets giving emphasis to war-like advises from Constantinople and to assertions that British demand for grain from the United States would be very large. Foreigners were reported active buyers of future deliveries of wheat in Chicago and at Minneapolis and Winnipeg as well. It was deemed significant that Winnipeg prices scored a more decided advance than took place here, withstanding big receipts at Winnipeg more than double the total a year ago.

Corn and oats responded to the wheat advance, May corn touching a new high price record for the season.

Provisions were helped upward by active shipping call both domestic and foreign.

A business change became effective today when George A. Halbert bought the interest of James A. Brown in the grocery business on Main street. Mr. Halbert states that he will continue the business at the old stand on a strictly cash basis. Mr. Brown will go on the road as a commercial salesman.

Allen is the oldest son of this large family, but he has been away for over thirty years and has become an authority in landscape work and horticulture that was well grounded by early training with his father. He has taken a large interest in the Springfield movement to better care for the trees of that city by the adoption of some kind of surgical treatment, and Mr. Wilkinson is preparing an article on the subject.

EXPLAINED STATE C. OF C. WORK PROGRAM

A. M. Hale District Vice President Met With Local Organization Directors Last Night.

At a meeting of the board of directors of Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce Friday night, A. M. Hale, vice president of the third district of the Illinois Chamber of Commerce was present and presented some matters concerning the work of this district. The Chamber of Commerce was organized after a call had been sent out by Quincy business men some four years ago. Its growth has been very rapid, on account of its supplying a way for the business men of the state to express themselves in a definite way on all economic questions. It represents 102 cities and towns in the state thru their local organizations and eight state organizations are affiliated with it.

Between forty and forty-five thousand business men are members of it. The Jacksonville chamber has been connected with it from the time of its organization and E. E. Crabtree has been one of the directors. Many matters have come before the Illinois chamber. Public utility affairs, state police bill, city planning and zoning laws. The tax clause of the new constitution; appropriations for funds by the state for educational purposes; deep water ways project. The sale of blue sky securities, city manager form of government, etc. Many state wide conferences have been held on these matters and conferences growling out of these conferences have been submitted to the business men. It is the desire of the Illinois chamber that every organization of business men in the state shall become a member and Mr. Hale is visiting the cities of this district that this may be accomplished.

The directors of the local chamber endorsed the work of the Illinois chamber and appointed a committee to assist Mr. Hale in this work. Mr. Hale will visit with the business men of Jacksonville and neighboring cities during the coming week.

C. OF C. WILL NAME TRAFFIC COMMITTEE

Complies With City Council Request for Selection of Committee to Study Problem.

At a meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce last night, with R. V. Rowe presiding, the request of the city council for appointment of a traffic committee was presented by Mayor Crabtree. The traffic problems are becoming so serious that the council suggested the naming of a general committee to study the whole matter in a detailed way and with the end in view of suggesting an ordinance that will cover the case.

It was the thought of Mr. Crabtree that such a committee should represent the city council, the chamber of commerce, the farm bureau, Passavant and "Our Savior's" hospitals, police and fire departments, the Jacksonville Automotive association, Morgan County Good Roads association, the city police and fire departments, Kiwanis and Rotary clubs, the board of education, the people of South Jacksonville, and West Jacksonville, and possibly some other organizations.

A committee was named including E. E. Crabtree, J. W. Merrikan, and J. W. Walton, to select the general committee. The thought is to have representatives of the various organizations study the traffic situation so that all interest may have a voice before any new regulations are promulgated.

NEAR TO OIL SAND IN ANOTHER WELL

May Shoot Well on Mahon Farm Today—Local Field Gets Better Name From State Geologists.

The drill was down 180 feet yesterday afternoon in the well in the northeast corner of the Mahon farm that Rhodes & Moorehead are drilling. It is likely that the sand will be struck today and in that event the well will be shot immediately, as the explosives have already been received for that purpose.

The operators in putting down the wells thus far have located them with a view to getting facts about the underground structure with the purpose of later drilling a deep well. The information thus far secured gives a fairly clear idea of underground conditions and the operators believe that a closed structure exists and that the limits have been outlined.

In view of that the pool runs from the northeast corner to the southwest about one and one-half miles and three-fourths of a mile to a mile in the opposite directions, Messrs. Rhodes & Moorehead have corroborative evidence of the state department of geology.

Mr. Collingwood of that office was here recently for investigation purposes and copies of the log of the wells have been furnished the department. Mr. Rhodes with one of his associates, Mr. Aldrich, of McLean county, recently visited the university and had several hours' conference with Mr. DeWolf, who is at the head of the geological survey. It seems that for the past eleven years the view of the surface has been that oil could not be found in this county in paying quantities. This information has been given out from time to time as persons interested in the oil development have made application to the department for information. However, the records of more recent drilling and investigations made by the representatives of the department have changed the viewpoint and the local field is no longer in condemned territory.

It is entirely likely that another representative of the geological survey will be sent here during the coming week to make a further investigation.

SCHOOL ATTENDANCE SHOWS BIG INCREASE

Surprising Figures Given To Rotary Club By Supt. H. A. Perrin—Rotarians May Aid School Boy Whose Environment is Unfortunate.

Rotarians at the luncheon Friday had the pleasure of hearing a group of songs by Mr. Lovejoy, the splendid baritone singer who is now head of the department of voice at the Conservatory of Music. Mr. Edmund Munger was his accompanist.

The address of the day was given by H. A. Perrin, superintendent of Jacksonville schools, who had for his theme "Some Phases of Modern School Training, with Local Application."

Club members look forward with special pleasure to the meeting Friday, October 6, when members have been invited to be the guests of Dr. Dollear and Mr. Vincent Riley at their cottage and the Rotary club cottage at Meredith. Luncheon will be served at the noon hour, but the Rotarians are expected to arrive as early as they can in the morning and stay as long as they please in the afternoon.

Boys Work Committee Miss Coulter of the Social Service league presented facts about a boy whose case has come before the league, and after some discussion the matter was referred to the boy's work committee, of which Thomas Hopper is the chairman. It is expected that this committee will recommend that the Rotary club arrange for the boy to be sent to a school outside of Jacksonville for a few months' period, so that it may be determined the best action that can be taken for his education.

A committee is to be named to co-operate with a Kiwanis committee in an effort to improve the housing situation with special reference to the needs of a number of the poorer families.

One of the guests of the day was Benjamin Collins of Austin, Tex.

Dr. A. H. Dollear in introducing Mr. Perrin said that the present superintendent of schools had accomplished great things for the schools of Jacksonville during the period of his superintendency, following out educational systems that are of the greatest benefit to the boys and girls.

School Attendance Figures

Mr. Perrin surprised the Rotarians by the statement that the number of pupils registered in the schools increased from 1762 in 1916 to 2,394 in the present year. This means an increase of 632 or 33 1-3 per cent. In the grades only today there are 1716 pupils, nearly as many as in the whole school system six years ago.

In the earlier year quoted there were 331 pupils in the high school, and now there are 667, which means an increase in that school of attendance in six years of 100 per cent.

"The population must have increased," Mr. Perrin said, "or else more children go to school than used to be the case, in compliance with present laws and present demands for educational training. The schools today in order to function properly must meet the needs as they are."

"The schools are not to serve as once seemed to be the case, merely to start out the pupils in a selective way to indicate those that are good for professional work and others that are fitted only for general work. The thought nowadays is to adjust the school courses according to the several needs of the different groups. Boys and girls are no alike mentally any more than they are physically. Some of them can be advanced rapidly and others more slowly. There is no proof in the fact that a boy or girl goes slowly that he or she cannot have big mind development. Speed is not essential. The educator should be the last person to say that something worth while cannot be given to a boy or girl in the school days."

"Today, as indicated, the effort is to group boys and girls according to their mental processes, to take them along the paths of educational work in the way that will bring the best results, not endeavoring to adjust the pupils to the system but by applying the system to the pupil as the need may be."

Speed Not Necessary

"It is far better for a pupil to go with the group that goes slowly if he is not fitted to travel along with the rapid moving group. The teacher is no longer a mere assigner of lessons. The teacher of today must be an artist if he or she is to accomplish the right results. The teacher must have the knowledge that will permit removal of the stumbling blocks that annoy and retard the progress of the pupil."

Referring to the local situation Mr. Perrin mentioned that when at the beginning of his superintendency seven years ago the average special training of teachers in the grades was seven weeks and today the average is a year and five months. The standard training recommendation is two years, so that it will be noticed that considerable progress has been made during the seven years toward the better condition.

The educational system of today takes into account intelligence, the social well being, health, morals and religion. By the last used word the speaker meant righteousness. The standard factors in bringing about desired results as mentioned by Mr. Perrin are adequate buildings, teachers, equipment and support. He said too that the time must come when the school system of a territory rather than of a city forms the unit. The local high school provides educational oppor-
